

 MEDIA ALERT *****

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Luz Reyna
lreyna295@gmail.com

November 8, 2022

DIONNE ADAMS WINS ELECTION FOR PITTSBURG CITY COUNCIL

PITTSBURG, CA --- Tonight Pittsburg voters showed their support for Dionne Adams to serve on Pittsburg City Council for a full term.

"I grew up here and have always appreciated the genuine love people of our city have for each other. I am raising my children here and want the same experience for them while also building our city up to support future generations and residents to come."

Adams has served on the Pittsburg Chamber of Commerce Board being an advocate for local and diverse businesses. She also serves as a Commissioner of the Pittsburg Planning Commission where she reviews project proposals brought before the city to evaluate feasibility and impact to our community. In her professional career, she has over 20 years of public policy and management experience. She is a Diversity, Equity and Inclusion practitioner so she brings the lens to evaluating how we can make our city more inclusive, prosperous and thriving for all.

"As our city moves forward, I want to continue our legacy of Pittsburg love while embracing new residents, businesses and community partners to help make Pittsburg a destination city where everyone feels included and is proud to work, live and play here."

Adams has a Bachelors of Science in Business Administration with an emphasis in Marketing from San Francisco State and a Masters in Public Policy from Golden Gate University.

Endorsements received include East Bay Times, U.S. Congressman Mark DeSaulnier, Contra Costa County Supervisor Federal D. Glover, Contra Costa County District Attorney Diana Becton, Current Pittsburg Mayor Holland Barrett White, Former Pittsburg Mayor and current City Treasurer Nancy Parent, California Democratic Party, Contra Costa Young Dems, Contra Costa Labor Council and more. For full list, visit: www.adams4pittsburg.com.